New York-WASHINGTON-Paris

Store Closed Tomorrow THANKSGIVING DAY

O FITTINGLY OBSERVE and give thanks for the greatest Thanksgiving Day we, as a nation, have ever known.

We rejoice with all mankind in the cessation of hostilities, bringing with it the triumph of justice and freedom, and we join with all Washington in reverent and grateful thanks for the preservation of the lives of so many of our brave soldiers in the battle for world-wide democracy.

If our burdens have seemed heavy, let us reflect upon the unbounded blessings that have come to us as individuals and as a nation.

> May Your Thanksgiving Day Be a Joyful One

NOTHING is more displeasing than dingy, faded Corsets. RIT will restore the freshness of your Corsets-will cleanse and dye them at the same time. RIT pink, flesh or rose color will make your Corsets beautiful. Unnecessary to remove laces, trimming or garters. Dye your corsets complete—just as they are.

The pattern in brocaded silk Corsets will be brought out in its original perfection. Cotton Corsets can be kept pretty and dainty. RIT will preserve color and cleanliness of all kinds of Corsets—insuring longer wear and economy.

You're spared bother and expense—for dyeing with RIT is not only the most economical way possible but the simplest. Use RIT on your blouses, lingerie, light silk gowns, silk gloves, stockings, silk sweaters, infants' wear, light-weight draperies and portieres. RIT will save you money regularly. No boiling. No fuss. No trouble.

Never say "dye-say"RIT"

All fashionable colors—LIGHT AND DARK. Dyes Silk. Cotton, Wool. Will not stain hands, streak or injure fabric. Nothing to do over. Always quick-always easy—always successful. Fast colors.

Manufactured exclusively by SUNBEAM CHEMICAL CO., Inc. Chicago New York Los Angeles Toronte

PRODUCT PATENTED JULY 18, 1916 O Sembourn Chemical Co., Inc.

White House this afternoon Senor Don Bertram Mathieu, the new ambassador of Chile, who was accompanied by Senor Don Gustavo Munisago Varela, counselor and charge d'affaires of the embassy since Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. David Franklin Houston, Mrs. Oliver Wendell Holmes and Mrs. Willard Saulsbury were guests of Mrs. Wilson in her box at the New National yesterday afternoon for the New York symphony concert.

Others in the boxes were Mrs. Mo-Adoo, Mrs. Calderon Carlisle, Mrs. Walter Bruce Howe, Mrs. Edmund Pendleton, Mrs. William A. Slater, Mme. di Sibour, Mrs. F. B. Moran, whose guests were Col. and Mrs. Clarence Ridley, Mr. and Mrs. P. Lee Phillips, Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, Mrs. Robert L. Shepherd and Mrs. Thomas F. Logan.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will return to Washington this evening from Boston, where the Vice President went to deliver an address. They left the capital on Monday.

Guests at Italian Embassy.

The ambassador of Italy and Count-ess Macchi di Cellere will be hosts at a luncheon Saturday, when the Sec-retary of State and Mrs. Lansing will head the list of notable guests.

The Secretary of State and Mrs.
Lansing have a full program arranged for tomorrow, starting with a midday Thanksgiving dinner, with all of the members of their family now in Washington as guests. In the afternoon Mrs. Lansing will be hostess at a tea for the officials of the State Department and their families, and in the evening the Secretary and Mrs. Lansing will be hosts at a supper for thirty nurses from the Walter Reed Hospital, associates of Miss Nataline Dulles, the niece of Mrs. Lansing, who is taking a course in nursing there.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing and the ambassador of Spain and Senora de Riano were the guests at a brilliant little dinner party last evening, with the assistant secretary

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Franklin Lane will entertain informally at dinner tonight by way of farewell to the French ambassador and Mme. Jusserand.

Mrs. James W. Wadsworth jr., accompanied by Miss Evelyn Wadsworth, has gone to Boston to spend Thanksgiving with her son, who is at St. Mark's School.

A guest at the British embassy is Capt. Carpenter, who commanded the British ship Vindictive and who arrived in New York a day or two ago. Capt. Carpenter was severe-ly wounded.

Col. and Mrs. Lewis Foerster announce the engagement of their sister, Miss Selam Tauscher, to Lleut. Commander Frank W. Sterling, U. S. N. The wedding will take place at noon on Thursday, December 19, 1918, at the Monmouth Chambers, Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Henderson announce the engagement of their daughter, Louise Adelaide, and Mr. Ralph Brodie of Washington.

Fittingly enough, the Secretary of War, Mr. Baker, and the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Josephus Daniels the Navy and Mrs. Josephus Daniels assisted in receiving the guests at the victory reception, given by the Southern Society of Washington, at the Wardman Park Hotel last evening. The president of the society, Dr. Clarence J. Owens, and Mrs. Owens, and former presidents of the society and their wives, including Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Gorgas and Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, were also in line, as was Miss Nannie Randolph Heth. Mrs. Daniels, who recently returned was Miss Nannie Randolph Heth.
Mrs. Daniels, who recently returned from a six-week tour of southern and western states in the interest of the Y. W. C. A., was handsome in a gown of black velvet, and received a hearty greeting. Mrs. Adelaide Worth Bagley, and the Misses Bagley, mother and sisters of Mrs. Daniels, were also present, as were several hundred others prominent in official and resident society at the capital.

There will be a private view of an exhibition of British naval photographs in color at the Corcoran Art Gallery Friday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock, under the auspices of the British bureau of information, when the president and trustees of the gallery will be hosts.

The patronesses are Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, Mme. Jusserand, the Countess of Reading, Viscountess Ishil, Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mrs. William Gibbe McAdoo, Mrs. Newton Diehl Baker, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, Mrs. David Franklin Houslery will be hosts.

The patronesses are Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, Mme. Jusserand, the Countess of Reading, Viscountess Ishil, Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo, Mrs. Newton Diehl Baker, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, Mrs. David Franklin Houston, Mrs. Larz Anderson, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Larz Anderson, Mrs. Bar-clay, Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard, Mrs. William Shepherd Benson and others.

Official war pictures of the Army in France, loaned by the War College, will be shown in connection with the motion picture benefit at the Knickermotion picture benefit at the Knicker-bocker Theater, 18th street and Co-lumbia road, for the benefit of the cevalry branch of the Army emer-gency committee on Thursday, De-cember 5, at 3:30. These pictures are so remarkably clear that one's friends may be easily recognized.

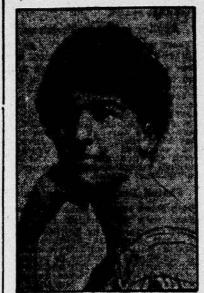

may be easily recognized.

The boxes and seats may be obtained from any member of the committee or at the theater.

Jonkheer and Mme. A. W. L. Tijarda van Starkenborgh-Stachouwer, the latter formerly Miss Christine Marburg, will go to Baltimore today to attend the lecture to be given this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Marburg by the Rev. Henri Anet of Belgium, for which invitations have been issued.

Lieut. Theodore Marburg, jr., of the Royal British Flying Corps and Mrs. Marburg, who recently visited the officer's parents in Baltimore, have sailed for England.

Mrs. Robert H. Patchin of New York, is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan H. Beach at their home on the Rock-ville pike for the Thanksgiving holi-

MRS. JAMES W. O'LEARY,

Mrs. John Leslie Prather will enter-tain informally at luncheon today at the Washington Hotel, in honor of Miss Stella McCann of Providence, R. I., and Miss Maude Bohning of New York city, later taking her guests to the Belasco.

with her nephew, Mr. W. H. Church.

A wedding of particular interest took place at noon yesterday in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Hungerfold, at the Portner, when their daughter, Miss Alice W. Hungerfold, and Lleut. James W. O'Leary, U. S. N., were married. Father Mackin officiated, in the presence of a number of invited guests, who also attended the breakfast which followed.

Miss Mary P. Hungerford attended the bride as maid of honor, the latter wearing her going-away gown of navy blue broadcloth with a small hat of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet two ago. Capt. Carpenter was severely wounded.

Wearing her going-away gown of list playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of dark velvet, a large corsage bouquet of bris playing won much applause, of bris playing won this playing won the system of bris playing won the post playing won this playing won this playing won this playing won the post playing won this playing won this

Richardson, Mr. Cleveland McKee;
Lieut. Frank Lagay, U. S. A.; Lieut.
Harold Jillson, U. S. A.; Miss Ednor
Davis, Miss Christine Davis, Mrs.
Ernest H. Harding, Miss Florence Eno.
Miss Edythe Blinkhorne.
Lieut. and Mrs. O'Leary left yesterday afternoon for an extended wedding journey, including a visit to the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
William O'Leary, at Boonville, N. Y., after which they will go to New London, Conn., where Lieut. O'Leary is stationed.

Mrs. Bolton a Hostess.

On Thanksglving day the Girls' Friendly Society in the diocese of Washington will celebrate the first anniversary of the opening of the lodge at 915 Rhode Island avenue. Mrs. H. C. Bolton, who is in direct charge of the lodge, will receive during the afternoon, being assisted by the girls who live in the lodge and annex.

nd sisters of Massers prominent in official and resident society at the capital.

The large ballroom, entirely in ivory white, relieved only by a few gigantic palms and baskets of flowers, furnished the splendid and stately setting for the reception. After the guests were received, there was informal dancing and a supper typical of the south.

Wilson a Patroness.

Wilson a Patroness.

Wilson a Patroness.

What promises to be one of the most what promises to be one of the most what promises in the history of the south of

The young men of the Theta Delta Chi Fraternity, George Washington University, will entertain at a Thanksriving dange at the chapter iouse, 1842 Calvert street, this evening.

The New Ebbitt=

There'll be a "Victory Dance" Room—from 9:30 to Midnight.

You can wind up the celebration of the day most enjoyably with a dance or two-under the most agreeable surroundings.

Good music. A la carte cafe service.

G. F. Schutt, President.

Mrs. V. C. Thurston of Chicago Courts and her little daughter are in Rich-mond for Thanksgiving with Mr. Thurston's parents.

Capt Arthur L. Willard of the navy yard has detailed Lieut. Martin, in command of the Sylph, to have the marine barracks concert hall decorated for the promenade concert to be given there tomorrow, Thanksgiving night. The ballroom will be brilliant with American flags, the flags of the Navy and marine and yards of bunting, making the best background possible for pretty costumes.

ing, making the best background possible for pretty costumes.
Assisting Mrs. Josephus Daniels in receiving will be Mrs. William Shepherd Benson, Mrs. Charles S. Long, Mrs. Charles Henry Davis, Mrs. R. E. Coonts and Mrs. Alexander Sharp.
Col. Ramsey's aids include Capt. M. L. Gover, Capt. W. S. McRae, Lieut. Scott and Lieut. Carson, U. S. M. C., and Commander Theodore Jewel, Commander Alexander Charlton and Commander Harvey Delano of the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. I. K. Oakley will give a dinner dance Friday evening for their daughter, Miss Marjorie Lee Oakley, and their house guest, Miss Betty Trimble of Norfolk, Va., a class-mate of Miss Oakley's at Trinity Col-lege of this city.

Senator and Mrs. Saulsbury will en-tertain at dinner tonight for the re-tiring ambassador of Argentina and Mme. Naon.
Mrs. Saulsbury will be at home norrow afternoon after 4 o'clock.

AMUSEMENTS

dence of Mrs. Hope's parents, Maj. and Mrs. Nevil Monroe Hopkins, with whom they are spending the winter. The honor guests were Miss Catherine Harlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Harlow, and her fiance, Lieut. Commander Theodore Stark Wilkinson, 2d, U. S. A. Maj. and Mrs. Hopkins are giving a tea, followed by an informal dance, tomorrow, to introduce their younger daughter, Miss Frances Hopkins, to society.

Mew York Symphony Concert.

The initial concert this season of the New York Symphony Society, Walter Damrosch, conductor, with Jascha Heifets, the phenomenal young violinist, as soloist, was the attractive combination that drew an audience to the Shubert-Belasco Theater yesterday society. afternoon so large as to utilize some of the available standing room. Jascha Heifets, when first heard in Washington, last season, was acclaimed a wonderful master of technique. This year finds him still mar-Miss Marie Ridgeley left Washington today to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Elizabeth Gott, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Gott, at Annapolis, and while there will attend the Thanksgiving hop at the Naval Academy.

Mrs. George A. Shehan will go to Baltimore to spend Thanksgiving with her nephew, Mr. W. H. Church.

A wedding of particular interest took place at noon yesterday in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Hungerfold, at the Portner, Philip C. Hungerfold, at the Portner, when their daughter. Miss Alice W. velous in his technique, but playing a veritable treat. At the conclusion of the concerto Heifets was recalled many times. Beautiful melody seemed to be the order of the afternoon, the symphony, Berlioz's "Harold in Italy," abounding in tuneful lines characteristic of the music of Italy. Throughout the four movements the viola obligato by M. Pollain was prominent and the beauty of his playing won much applause. Debussy's "Quartet for Strings," in two movements, while full of the unexpected that characterizes the works of Debussy, was not without a haunting melody, something seldom found in the modern school of music, of which Debussy is a prominent exponent cenes, with twenty-two musical numine girls who live in the lodge and annex.

These girls are all war workers and from out of town. They extend a general invitation to all G. F. S. girls in town to spend the afternoon and evening with them. All men in uniform are cordially invited. A comfortable clubroom is to be opened soon for the use and convenience of out-of-town G. F. S. girls.

Representative and Mrs. Horace M. Towner of Iowa were called to Colorado last week by the illness and death of their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Pierce. Mrs. Pierce had many friends in Washington, where she was married in February, 1915.

Mrs. Austin McDonnell with and many friends in February, 1915.

Mrs. Austin McDonnell with and many friends in February, 1915.

noon, December 6, at 4:30 o'clock, presenting Marcia Van Dresser, the dramatic star and grand opera prima donna, and Hans Kindler, the noted Dutch 'cellist of the Philadelphia Orchestra, in a joint program.

GAYETY—Harry Hasting's show, featuring Dan Coleman, assisted by Alma Bauer. Hazel Lorraine, Alice Guilmette, Marjorie Mandaville and Harry Hollis, in a two-act entertainment of ten scenes. LOEW'S PALACE-"Sporting Life," a picture reproduction of an old Drury Lane melodrama, made by Mau-rice Tourneur, the French director. METROPOLITAN — Clara Kimball Young pictured in "The Road Through the Dark"; Geraldine Farrar, in "The Hell Cat." NEXT WEEK'S PHOTOPLAYS.

STRAND-Mme. Alla Nazimova pic tured in her latest photoplay feature "Eye for Eye," being an adaptation of Henry Kistemaecker's "L'Occident."

COLUMBIA-Pauline Frederick in "A Daughter of the Old South" and Mrs. Benjamin Soule Gants, wife of GARDEN—Emmy Wehlen in "His Bonded Wife," Mae Murray in "Mod-

Thanksgiving night—in the Crystal

Victory Dances-every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.

> Augustus Gumpert. Manager.

returned from New York, where she was the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frederick Clarkson.

Mrs. V. C. Thurston of Chicago Courts

Spiracy and murder case.

Births Reported.

The following births have been reported to the health department in the last twenty-feuthours:
Joseph W., jr., and Gertrude Smith, boy. Francis S. and Marion W. Maguire, girl. John A. and Mabel J. Stepper, girl. John A. and Mabel J. Stepper, girl. John F. and Catherine Blenard, girl. Charles H. and Alta J. Culler, boy. Arthur E. and Olive M. Shoemaker, bey. Charles A. and Mary M. Everett, girl. Samuel C, and Frances P. Sacco, boy. Albert L. and Bertha A. Woodburn, boy. Floyd and Alma Jocum, girl. Harry E. and Edith C. Chandlee, girl. John J. and Eilen B. Morse, boy. Harry E. and Rose M. Eplar, girl. Earl C. and Naomi H. Putnam, boy. Charles T. and Eileen M. Hutchins, girl. Rhodie L. and Hasel R. Lovelace, girl. Charles A. and Mabel C. Knott, girl. Leonard and Edith A. Yates, girl. Alexander W. and Florence H. Williams, boy. Horace D. and Dorothy Rouzer, girl. Louis J. and Priscilla J. Liebenguth, boy. Herbert and Alice Gibbs, boy. Hubert and Annada Smith, boy. William and Gertrude Edelan, boy. William and Gertrude Edelan, boy.

Marriage Licenses.

Julien R. Hume of Norfolk, Va., and Molly Clara L. Walthall of Belina, Va.
Lysie B. Carvelle of Chicago, Ill., and Daisy
Hubbard of Annapolis, Md.
Jacob G. Jones and Eva Elizabeth Phillipa.
John J. Slingerland and Mattie L. Gallahan, both of Alexandris, Va.
Lester G. Kinsey of Viewtown, Va., and Florence Blackwell of Amosville, Va.
Anselm X. Marilley of Croghan, N. Y., and Margaret M. Collins of this city.
Prude McClendon of Birmingham, Ala., and Ruth H. Hallowell of St. Paul, Minn.
Isador J. Meinberg and Marie L. Schwab.

Leonard R. Steidel and Katherine O. Lac August Wilhelm, jr., and Amelia E. Bebeth of Baltimore, Md.
Sylvester Witt and Marie I. Monroe.
John R. Holland and Lorie G. Bragg, bott Charlottesville, Va.
James E. Dade and Lester C. Garner, lof Mechanicsville, Md.
Solomon R. Tilghman and Jennie Taylor.
Daniel U. Masten of this city and Attilah Howe of Glens Falls, N. Y.
John G. Darly of Rockville, Md., and Be M. Dunsmore of Staunton, Va.

For Ordnance Duty at Camp Meigs. Capt. George M. Cowenhoven, ord-nance department, has been relieved from duty at Camp Dix, N. J., and detailed as commanding officer of the ordnance depot at Camp Meigs in this city.

PAUL LEIBEL Furrier and Ladies' Tailor 1215 GSt.

Showing Ladies' Readyto-Wear Suits

-in great variety, and at prices you will find decidedly moderate for really distinctive costumes. Suits made to order from exclusive ALL-WOOL fab-

Fur Coats in All Lengths Also Muffs, Stoles and Sets in every fashionable fur. SPECIAL NOVEMBER

The Best Gift

the folks at home could wish for is a distinctive military portrait of you in the uniform of which they are so proud.

Phone Main 1692 at Once and Make an Appointment

1331 F Street N.W

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT COMPLETELY REMODELED THROUGHOUT

Chinese and American Cooking By the Request of Our Many Patrons We Are Preparing

A Special Thanksgiving TURKEY DINNER

ONE DOLLAR

MENU Oxtail Soup Roast Young Turkey With Dressing and Cranberry Sauce Shrimp Salad Mashed Potatoes and Stewed Corn

Ice Cream and Pumpkin Pie Bread and Butter Tea or Coffee Add to your Thanksgiving Day pleasure by dining where you re served by polite and experienced attendants.

White Tablecloths Silver Service Polite Attendants

Beautiful Decorations Refined Surroundings Best Cooking

Packed in pounds, halves and quarters.

McCormick & Co.

Baltimore, Md.